

TRAVIS WALTON

Mid-Level Interior Designer

Travis Walton is an established architecture and interior design studio founded in 2010, known for its refined, imaginative approach across residential, hotel and commercial design. Our work is defined by thoughtful detail, a minimalist sensibility, and a commitment to creating enduring spaces that reflect purpose and personality in equal measure.

We're seeking a Mid-Level Interior Designer with a minimum of five years' experience to join our Melbourne team and play a key role in the delivery of our projects.

The ideal candidate will demonstrate experience delivering high-end residential projects from concept through to completion, with proficiency in Revit and SketchUp, and a strong ability to communicate design intent through clear documentation and visual outputs. You will demonstrate a refined conceptual and spatial design sensibility, alongside experience in FF&E, finishes, and detailing. This role suits someone who is highly organised, proactive and motivated by design quality, and who enjoys working within a collaborative studio environment.

Applicants should demonstrate:

- Minimum five years' experience delivering high-end residential projects
- Strong design, spatial and visual communication skills
- Strong documentation and 3D skills
- Clear communication and collaborative approach
- Strong initiative, organisation and sound judgement
- Eligibility to work in Australia

Technical skills:

- Revit (essential)
- SketchUp (essential)
- Adobe Indesign, Illustrator, Photoshop
